NG SHOOTING MATCHES.-The sportsmen of Statedale, with Mr. Owen Lewis at the head of them, having fired of the monoto nous way of conducting shooting matches recently hit upon a new idea for carrying on such sporting events, and it is to be said that the innovation is received with great favor-the novelty with which it is invested making it attractive and fascinating for all marks: aen. The new invention or contrivance consists of a rope stretched like the traveling rope at a stone or slate quarry, in Shape like an inclined plane, or which a 'carriage" with a block and centre on it is made to travel under self propulsion. The | you performed?" marksmen take their station away from the tope as a distance agreed upon, and after all are in place the man at the lever of the line litts what is called a catcher, and down the inclined plane travels the carriage bearing each man's target board successively. When it comes opposite to the owner be blazes away at it for hitting the centre, and whether he hits or not it passes on to the termious of the line, and then returns for conveying the next man's board. phia, General Bingham, who represents the ist Pennsylvania district in Congress, brought with him a proposition which he submitted to the House to-day. It provides ing the lines of battle and the positions of the troops of the Army of Northern Virginia at the battle of Gettysburg. Attention is Southern state. of the Union lines during the three days not one ted has been opened or marked. For the purpose of pre-civing the latter it is suggested that it would be advisable to pronze, exch bearing a brief historic legend, umpiled without praise and without censure. Upwards of twenty-four miles of friveway, bridges, culverts and fords will be acquired by purchase, and in this territory will be shown the four hundred and seven teen inctical positions of regiments, thirty one positions occupied by batteries of artil lery and two hundred and fourteen positions of brigades as they were formed in line of battle. Along the avenues indicating the positions of the Union lines 236 monuments have been erected to mark the positions o commands of the Army of the Potomac, and About 100 monuments and twice that num ber of flank stones will be set up during this year. There is a growing conviction that the general government should lose no time ing the positions of the troops in some enfor sentiment, but in the interest of history.

Prominent military veterans of the old umy have been communicated with conthis matter, and among those who eve put themselves on record as favorable in it are some of the bravest fighters who participated in the memorable conflict on ennsylvania soil. Major-General John Newton, who commanded the first army corps, says: "It seems very plain to me that marking the buttlefield without the lines of the Confederate army would be very incom-

Major-General Henry W. Slocum. commanded the Twelfth Army Corps, expresses as his sentiments: "I hope measures and recording the great events while they will be adopted to mark the lives of battle of the Confederates at Cettysburg." Major-General Daniel E Sickles declares

With all its monuments preserved, it would be an object-lesson of patriotism for mankind through untold centuries "

Commander-in-Chief Alger, of the Grand A Rochester lady, who was guest last army of the Republic, sanctions the idea, saying: "I shall be very glad to see adopted the suggestion of having the positions of the memy on the Gettysburg battlefield carefully marked and in such a way that they may be preserved for all time. Gettysburg that great field."

Governor Ames, of Massachusetts, states I am beartily in favor of any such work o lesignation as will tend to make the story of the battle of Gettyshurg plainer to the present seneration and to maintain its accuacy for 'hose who may come after us." Interstate Commerce Commissioner Venzey, in als reply, says : "I have been over the field of Gettysburgat different times the past two years, and have been impressed that it is a necessity to have marked the lines of battle of the Army of Northern Vir ginia, as a supplement to what has been and being done to make the work complete. General John P. Rea, of Minne-ota, ex resses himself as follows : "Had there been Confederate line of battle at Getrysburg there could have been no battle of Gettyburg."

Goff, the richest Republican in West Virmark the lines with tablets of granite and ginia, was nominated for governor with a view to corruption of voters; and it appears nomination plans were boldly laid to pur chase votes and import repeaters whereve possible. These plans resulted, the report declares, in polling no less than 3,000 illegal votes for the Republican ticket. Only small proportion of these could possibly be detected. About 800 were cast out by the contest committee, but for every vote disal lowed it is estimated that four illegal votes

Thirty thousand dollars was allotted to this state by Quay's committee, and the best par during manner while it can yet be done, not of this money went into the Kanawha valley, and hired God' repeaters by the score. The work in Payette county is a thir sample Within two months preceding the election nearly 300 negroes were brought from Virginia and given nomical employment in the mines about Fayetteville.

Before the contest committee a number o these negroes testified that they and their companions wanted to go home to Virginia to vote, but the Republican leaders persuaded them to stay. They did stay and voted by the score for Harrison and protection Their votes were received by Republican tests. In Kanawha county methods equally as bold, but of a different character, were used. A corruption fund of $10,000 was placed in the county, experienced political najority was increased over 400. The worst frauds, however, did not lihere. They were at the head of the Kanawha valley, in the thinly settled counties o Mercer and McDowell. In the spring of 1888 the Norfolk & Western railroad was extended into these counties. Coke evens were built during the summer, and a large floating population brought in and employed on these works and on the railroad exten ion. Nine-tenth- of these laborers cam from Tozewell and Giles counties, Va., and the state six months. The evidence shows regroes to the pulls, intimidated election udges where opposition was offered, and voted 1,200 of them in two precincts. Mereer county gave a Democratic majority or 700 in 1956 : in 1955 a Republican majority of 100 was secured. A change almost as great occurred in Mc Dowell county. The startling boldness of the fraud can best be seen by one circumstance which was proven by scores of witall voted there in the morning. Then they | I'll give you just five hours to remove you boarded a train, crossed the line into Vir- arm." ginia, where the negroes, who were bona fide residents, cost their ballots without protest. Another train carried the whole gang into Elkhorn, McDowell county, W. Va. where they marched to the polls crazy with dring, and with brandished clubs and re volvers placed their Harrison and Goff ballots in the boxes.

The circuit court of Mercer county me shortly after the election. Judge Johnston delivered a ringing charge, and the grand jury, acting under his instructions, returned over 300 indictments for illegal voting. Many of those indicted have been already tried, but the great majority fiel the state and the place, which knew them once know them no more. In considering these frauds the contest committee acted with the greatest conservatism. Only 175 Republican votes were cast out in Mercer and McDowell, and these were the votes of men who wer registered in Virginia and at the same timvoted in West Yirginia.

The above are only a few of the facts pro sented in the committee's report. The entire document is a startling expose of fraud and trickery. THE SUNDAL'S BUILTON' is not only a complete newspaper, but a Magizine of Pondar Literature. Its sixteen bone pears, gening permet and attractively illustrated, condition as much good literature, by the foreinost writers of the world, as any of the popular monthlies. Some of the newspapers in New York, Boston and Chango print a greater number of pages upon Sunday, but these are for the most part occupied with advertisements. The merchants in those cities concentrate nearly all their advertising in the Sunday papers, while in Philadelphia they have found it more advantageous to advertise on week days as well.

Description. by Mr. Robinson, a farmer in the northern part of this State, on the effects of preliminary cultivation on the yield of wheat. The result was what might have been expected, and yet it is a fact that is too fre quently ignored by our farmers, namely That imperfect cultivation largely diminish es the yield. The results were as appended, the variety used being Foltz: Land plowed once yielded 19 bushels per Plowed and harrowed once yielded 181 bushels per acre. Plowed twice, harrowed once yielded 21 bushels per acre. Plowed and harrowed twice yielded 23; bushels per acre.

Auyone can easily calculate for himself the cost of the increased labor and the offset of the greater yield. The smaller area wel tilled pays the best. PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH COOKING TH

BEST. - Talk about your French cookshumbug! Leaving out the one item o beet, which they boil, roast or fry until it is as dry, flat and tasteless as a chip, the Pennsylvania Dutch women are the best cooks in the world. If the beef is unsatisfactory you can have a slice of fried ham that would almost convert a vegetarian; potatoes will be whipped into a mountain of savory cream the big Lima beans will dissolve at the touch of the tongue, the corn, tomatoes, asparagus-all things that ever grew in gar den or field-bave lost not one breath of their fresh dainty flavor. The bread is as light and white as new fallen snow, the butter was churned yesterday and the preserves and jellies are miracles of delicious reetness. At such a feast you forget you bodily limitations, but eat as if you are a spirit that occupies all space and can never be filled.--N.Y. World. THE FOOD VALUE OF EGOS. -The food value of eggs, as compared with fruits, has been studied by Fresenius, who, after a long series of analyses, states that one ordinary hen's egg contains as much nourishment as 17 ounces of cherries, 20 ounces of grapes, 24 onnes of russet apples, 2 pounds of gooseberries and 4 pounds of pears. The same distinguished authority says that 114 pounds of grapes, 127 pounds of apples, 195 pounds of pears and 327 pounds of plums are equal in nourishment to 100 pounds of
